

Fun Things To Do at Arrowhead Preserves

We challenge you to do them all. Check them off as you go!

- Watch for eagles cruising overhead
- Search under leaves to find bugs
- Sketch, draw, or color a wetland scene
- Count the different sounds you hear
- Find something on the trail in every color of the rainbow
- Stand where flowers are taller than you
- Adopt a tree, record seasonal changes
- Take a picture of what you see
- Find different plants that stand in water
- Look for butterflies drinking nectar
- Draw a variety of seeds seen on a hike
- Write a poem about what you see
- Dip for swimmers & wigglers in the pond
- Eat a snack at our picnic table
- What birds did you see in trees? Near ponds? On open prairie?
- Investigate mud puddles or snowy areas for animal tracks
- Take a 20 minute listening hike, no talking
- Help at a stewardship work session
- What's the smallest animal seen? Biggest?
- Look for scat (poop)
- Count caterpillars found on milkweed
- Attend a public hike
- Invite your friends to join you!

HOURS

Dawn to dusk.

RULES OF THE TRAILS

To protect our wildlife, do not bring in or remove animals or plants of any kind. Imported species can carry diseases, damage native populations or cause other problems.

Please take your trash out with you.

Stay on marked trails. The wildlife of Arrowhead Preserves need our habitats to survive; please don't disturb them.

PROHIBITED

Dogs or other pets, hunting, fishing, biking, motorized vehicles, horseback riding, alcohol, drugs, weapons, camping, campfires and all collecting.

GROUP HIKES

Contact Little River Wetlands Project if you wish to bring children's groups to the preserve, conduct studies, or want to join us on one of our guided hikes.
